B. A challenge must be filed with the Tribal Court not later than 5:00 p.m. of the second day after the issuance of the Commission finding, not including weekends or Tribal holidays, and be accompanied by a cash bond of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). For a challenge brought by an eligible applicant against another applicant, in addition to the foregoing, the Tribal Court review may include other evidence directly relevant to the challenged applicant's eligibility. Prior to the hearing, a party may file a request with the Court to inspect nomination records. The request shall specify the records to be inspected and reason why such inspection is needed. Upon a finding of good cause for the request, the Court will authorize an inspection of the specified records. The inspection shall take place in the presence of all parties and the legal custodian of the records.

E. The Tribal Court authority shall be limited to affirming or overturning the Commission finding, and the Court shall affirm such finding unless it concludes that the finding is contrary to law, arbitrary and capricious, or an abuse of discretion. The Tribal Court shall have no authority to order any other relief or to award costs to any party, other than the forfeiture of bond funds deposited by a losing challenger in the amount needed to pay attorney fees and costs. The Tribal Court shall issue its written decision, which shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law, not later than 5:00 p.m. of the day following the scheduled day of the hearing.

F. The Commission shall be bound by the Tribal Court decision in providing its findings to the Tribal Council if such decision is made in conformity with the requirements of this Section. No jurisdiction is vested in the Tribal Court over any matter under this Chapter except as expressly provided herein, and in no event shall the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court under this Section be construed to extend to the Tribal Council or to other officials or representatives of the Tribe, or to alter the election schedule established in the Constitution.

CHAPTER SIX CHALLENGES TO ELECTION RESULTS

[NOTE: Sections 6.3 and 6.4 were revised by Ordinance No. 252, enacted on November 16, 2011.]

SECTION 6.1 WHO MAY CHALLENGE AN ELECTION RESULT

Only a candidate, and no other person, may challenge the correctness of the announced results of an election in which that candidate ran for elected office and then only for the office that he or she sought. Any eligible voter, and no other person, may challenge the correctness of the announced results of a referendum election. All challenges must strictly comply with all applicable provisions of this Chapter.

SECTION 6.2 GROUNDINGS FOR CHALLENGES

A. Allegations of Fraud. An election result may be challenged on the basis of an allegation of fraud if the candidate, or any person authorized to act for such candidate, whose right to the office is contested, has given to a voter, election judge or election clerk a bribe or reward, or has offered such bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his or her election. The act complained of must have occurred at a polling location, or in the casting of an absentee vote. The complaint must identify the specific polling location or other location, or if in the casting of absentee ballots wherein such fraud occurred, the specific act constituting such alleged fraud and the names of the alleged perpetrators of such fraud.

B. Allegations of Irregularities other than Fraud. An election result may be challenged on the basis of an allegation of irregularities other than fraud if such challenge alleges a sufficient number of irregularities and of such a nature that:

1. The outcome of the election would have been contrary to the reported result; or
2. Proves that it is impossible to determine with mathematical certainty which candidate is entitled to be certified as elected, or in an election concerning a referendum, that the outcome of the election is impossible to determine with mathematical certainty.

SECTION 6.3 PROCEDURE FOR CHALLENGES

A. Challenges must be filed in writing under oath with the Election Commission on the complaint form provided by the Election Commission and which shall be substantially the same form as shown in Appendix C within five (5) calendar days following the certification of the election by the Commission. The challenge must provide the necessary information required by Section 6.2 and be accompanied by a cash bond of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00).

B. Upon receipt of a challenge the Election Commission shall review the challenge for complete compliance with this Chapter and if in compliance, shall forward the petition to the Chief Judge of the Tribal Court, or such other judge as the Chief Judge may assign. The Election Commission shall file a response or answer on or before the hearing date set by the Court. The judge shall hear and determine said issue without delay or continuance of more than five (5) days. On the day of the hearing, the challenged candidate may file an answer to such petition or may file a cross-petition, setting forth in detail, as required of a petitioner herein, such cross claims of fraud. A copy of the Judge's judgment and decision shall be furnished to the Election Commission.

C. The person or persons challenging the election results must prove by clear and convincing evidence that the Election Commission violated the Election Ordinance or otherwise conducted an unfair election and that the outcome of the election would have been different.

SECTION 6.4 CHALLENGE OUTCOME

A. Challenges based on Fraud. If fraud is proven on the part of a candidate, such candidate shall be declared ineligible for the office for which he or she was a candidate and a new election shall be conducted for the office. Except for the candidate who is declared ineligible, all other persons who were certified as candidates are entitled to run in the election. In all cases where a petition is filed which alleges fraud, but after a hearing said allegations are not proven by clear and convincing evidence, the contestant shall be civilly liable in damages to the challenged candidate or Election Commission for all damages sustained, including reasonable attorney fees and all reasonable and proper costs of conducting such contest. The bond shall be forfeited to the extent necessary to pay attorney fees and costs.

B. Challenges based on Irregularities other than Fraud. If the challenger is able to prove a sufficient number of irregularities such that it is impossible to determine with mathematical certainty which candidate is entitled to be certified as a candidate or to have his or her name appear on the runoff ballot, or in an election concerning a proposed measure or issue, prove that the outcome of the election is impossible to determine with mathematical certainty, the judge shall notify the chairman of the Election Commission of same. It shall then be the duty of the Election Commission Chairman to notify the Tribal Council of said decision. The Council shall then order a new election as soon as is practical in the same manner as the contested election, with the identical candidates or issues; provided that any candidate upon whom fraud has been proven shall not be a candidate in the new election.
