

RESOLUTION OF THE
WHITE MOUNTAIN APACHE TRIBE OF THE
FORT APACHE INDIAN RESERVATION

WHEREAS, the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife of the Department of the Interior is in the process of determining the feasibility of constructing a fish cultural station in Arizona, and

WHEREAS, there is a spring commonly designated as Alchesay Spring located eight and one-tenth miles north of the town of Whiteriver, Arizona in a canyon in the North Fork of White River which might serve the purpose of said Bureau, and

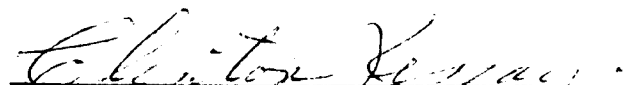

WHEREAS, the said Bureau desires, with the aid of the U. S. Geological Survey, to make a study of the site in order to determine the source of water, its chemical analysis, etc. which among other things will necessitate a certain amount of excavating, and

WHEREAS, the recreational enterprises of the White Mountain Apache Tribe would benefit greatly by the construction of a fish cultural station on this reservation, and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the White Mountain Apache Tribe that permission is granted to the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife and/or the U. S. Geological Survey to make a survey of the area comprising and surrounding Alchesay Spring to determine the feasibility of constructing a fish cultural station thereon.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that should the said Bureau determine that said location was feasible the Tribe would make available approximately twenty acres of land to the said Bureau for the maximum legal allowable period of time when it is determined that construction would be warranted with the right of ingress to and egress from said area.

The foregoing resolution was on January 7, 1958, duly adopted by a vote of 8 for and 0 against by the Tribal Council of the White Mountain Apache Tribe, pursuant to authority vested in it by Article VI, Section 1 (a) and (c) of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Tribe, ratified by the Tribe on August 15, 1938, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on August 26, 1938, pursuant to Section 16 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984).
