

RESOLUTION OF THE
WHITE MOUNTAIN APACHE TRIBE OF THE
FORT APACHE INDIAN RESERVATION

WHEREAS, the White Mountain Apache Tribal Council recognizes that the recent court directed legislative redistricting of the State of Arizona had divided our reservation into two parts, each voting in separate Legislative Districts, and

WHEREAS, this has resulted in the watering down of our influence on the election of representatives in either district, and

WHEREAS, the legislative boundary line presently running straight down the middle street of Whiteriver has not only diluted our ability to have a strong voice in Arizona Legislative matters, but it has resulted in some confusion in our community, and

WHEREAS, this confusion is the result of two separate sets of Legislative Candidates campaigning at the same time.

BE IT RESOLVED that the White Mountain Apache Tribal Council therefore petitions the U. S. District Court to recognize the directing solution to this problem (Senate Bill 1333) passed by the Arizona Legislation and signed by Governor Jack Williams.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the boundary lines directed under this bill would reunite the voting power of the White Mountain Apache people and would do away with the confusion and extra cost of two campaigning in the same area.

The foregoing resolution was on November 20, 1974 duly adopted by a vote of 9 for and 0 against by the Tribal Council of the White Mountain Apache Tribe, pursuant to authority vested in it by Article V, Section 1 (i) of the Amended Constitution and By-Laws of the Tribe, ratified by the Tribe, June 27, 1958 and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on May 29, 1958, pursuant to Section 16 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984).
