- WHEREAS, Councilwoman Gertie Lupe discussed this problem with Basil and Nellie Malone and they stated that they would be willing to relinquish recipient rights to the HIP home scheduled to be constructed for them this summer under the FY/84 HIP Contract, if ownership of the welfare housing unit that they are presently living in would be legally turned over to them, and
- WHEREAS, in addition and in further consideration, should any funding become available in the future, Basil and Nellie Malone would be considered for a remodeling addition to their welfare unit home in which they presently reside; and
- WHEREAS, after thorough review and discussion, the Tribal Council agrees to legally turn over ownership of the Tribal Welfare Housing Unit in question to Basil and Nellie Malone with the condition that they get a land assignment for said lot, that the Tribe will no longer be responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of said unit, and that it shall be the sole responsibility of the new owners (Basil and Nellie Malone) to maintain and upkeep this home, including purchase of insurance, utility payments and any other owner-type responsibilities.
