FORT APACHE INDIAN RESERVATION

WHEREAS, the Tribal Council has reviewed a proposal from Mountain Metals Recycling Company to bring a mobile recycling center to Whiteriver two mornings each week; and

WHEREAS, Ann Van Dielen, the owner of the company, has advised that her company receives many deliveries from Tribal members who haul aluminum cans and other recyclable materials to her facility in Pinetop; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Van Dielen suggests those persons may be better served by the mobile facility in Whiteriver; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Van Dielen informs the Council that her company purchases virtually all forms of nonferrous metals, paying competitive prices and based upon measurements taken by a certified electronic scale; and

WHEREAS, the Tribal Council recognizes the potential benefits to Tribal members from the proposal, including the collection of scrap metal from home sites within the reservation; and

WHEREAS, the Tribal Council has recommended to Mrs. Van Dielen that she also consider making her services available in Cibecue one morning each week; and

WHEREAS, the Tribal Council does not wish to undercut the aluminum can purchasing conducted by several Tribal members; and

WHEREAS, the Tribal Council considers a two month trial period as a reasonable balance between the need for economic opportunity and competition within the Reservation, and the need for stability for Tribal member enterprise.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Tribal Council of the White Mountain Apache Tribe that it grants permission for a two month trial period to Mountain Metals Recycling Company, Ann Van Dielen owner, to operate a mobile recycling center in Whiteriver two mornings each week.

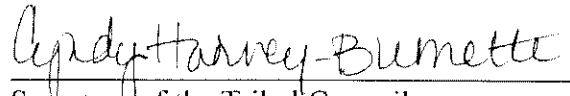

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED by the Tribal Council of the White Mountain Apache Tribe that it directs Mrs. Van Dielen to contact the Whiteriver Commercial Center management for assistance in determining an appropriate location for the mobile facility, and that Mrs. Van Dielen should also look into making her services available in Cibecue one morning each week during the two month trial period.
