

RESOLUTION OF THE
WHITE MOUNTAIN APACHE TRIBE OF THE
FORT APACHE INDIAN RESERVATION

- WHEREAS, previous surveys of historic properties having national importance considered only the integrity and significance of the military era structures within the District, neglecting the Theodore Roosevelt School facilities as heir to the Army's lands and improvements and as a further manifestation of the US Indian policies; and
- WHEREAS, previous White Mountain Apache Tribe efforts and collaborations with the National Park Service, the National Endowment for the Humanities, Arizona State Parks, World Monuments Fund, Fort Apache Heritage Foundation, and Fort Apache Agency-Bureau of Indian Affairs have eliminated virtually all non-essential intrusions into the Historic District and have restored or rehabilitated 11 of the District's historic structures; and
- WHEREAS, the Tribal Historic Preservation Office has determined that the Fort Apache and Theodore Roosevelt School National Register Historic District may qualify as a National Historic Landmark possessing national significance as a reflection and instrument of the Indian policy of the United States of America since 1870, and has prepared a draft nomination to obtain this most prestigious and widely recognized national designation for the District; and
- WHEREAS, National Historic Landmark designation would afford the Fort Apache and Theodore Roosevelt School National Register Historic District maximum advantage toward the repair, restoration, and adaptive reuse of all historic facilities, in accord with the 1993 Master Plan and other plans and Tribal Council resolutions; and

WHEREAS, National Historic Landmark designation would not establish limitations or constraints on the management or maintenance of the Theodore Roosevelt School in excess of those in place through the 1976 listing of the District on the National Register Historic of Historic Places; and

WHEREAS, National Historic Landmark designation for the Fort Apache and Theodore Roosevelt School National Register Historic District would provide direct and indirect benefits to the White Mountain Apache Tribe, the Theodore Roosevelt School, and the Fort Apache Reservation community through the creation of new opportunities for education, interpretation, historic preservation, the perpetuation of Apache language and culture, and the development of jobs and revenues through tourism-related economic development.
